

Force Majeure Declaration at Alliance APC-CREC and ACE – Potentially Ending Gas Day August 13, 2015

August 13, 2015

This is to notify you that, contingent on Alliance Pipelines declaring the end of the Force Majeure conditions on August 12th, NGX will also lift the Force Majeure declaration at Alliance APC-CREC and ACE effective gas day 13/08/2015. Therefore, existing contracting party obligations will no longer be under suspension and physical deliveries will be expected to commence at 100% of contract requirement on gas day 13/08/2015. In addition, cleared products will be open for trading effective trade day 12/08/2015 for gas day 13/08/2015.

Please watch for a further notification from NGX on this Wednesday August 12th, confirming the lifting of the Force Majeure condition at APC-CREC and ACE.

Please contact your NGX Marketing Representative or NGX's Operations staff at 403-974-4357 with any questions.
