

Force Majeure Declaration at Henry Hub

September 2, 2008

This is to notify all contracting parties of NGX that pursuant to the terms of the NGX Contracting Party's Agreement, NGX has declared a force majeure event, which is in effect for all natural gas transactions at Henry Hub ("Henry Hub Transactions"), commencing from the beginning of gas day August 31st and remaining in effect until further notice.

The force majeure declaration will result in a complete suspension of contracting party obligations relating to Henry Hub Transactions until further notice and Henry Hub products available through NGX will be halted until further notice.

NGX staff will be communicating with trader, credit or other appropriate contacts in your organization with further information, and updated notifications will also be available on NGX's website at ngx.com. Please contact NGX's U.S. Operations staff at 281-720-0525 with any questions.