

September 3rd, 2008

Force Majeure Lifted at Henry Hub on Gas Day Sept.4/08

This is to notify you that NGX is lifting the Force Majeure declaration at Henry Hub effective gas day 9/4/08. Therefore, existing contracting party obligations will no longer be under suspension and physical deliveries are expected to commence at 100% of contract requirement on gas day September 4th. The Force Majeure will still be in place and deliveries will continue to be considered unavailable for September 3rd. In addition, cleared products will be opened and no longer be halted effective trade day 9/3/08.

If you should any questions relative to the actions required in this notification, please contact NGX U.S. at 281.720.0525.