

Force Majeure Declaration Ended Alliance Pipeline Limited Partnership (“Alliance Canada”)

October 19, 2016

Further to the notice disseminated by Natural Gas Exchange (“NGX”) and posted to NGX’s website on October 5, 2016, this is to notify you that NGX is lifting the Force Majeure declaration at Alliance for all natural gas transactions at Alliance Canada’s delivery point APC-ATP (“ATP”) effective gas day 20/10/2016. Therefore, existing contracting party obligations at ATP will no longer be under suspension and physical deliveries are expected to commence at 100% of contract requirement on gas day 20/10/2016 at ATP. In addition, cleared products are open for trading at ATP effective trade day 19/10/2016 for gas day 20/10/2016.
