

April 12, 2016

The NGX reports will be updated after market close on April 22, 2016. This update will improve the layout for Internet Explorer 11 and other browsers including Chrome, Safari and Firefox. This update will improve functionality and layout across all reports and be more widely supported on a variety of devices. After this date NGX will no longer support browsers lower than Internet Explorer version 11. As per the Microsoft support announcement, no further security updates are available for Internet Explorer 8, 9 or 10 starting January 12, 2016.
