

NGX Reports Revisions

In order to improve the usability of the NGX reports we have some upcoming changes to the NGX Index Prices and Index Price Details reports. The Crude Oil information from the 'Index Prices' and 'Index Price Details' reports has been separated into the 'Crude Oil Index Prices' and 'Crude Oil Index Price Details' reports. The Crude Oil information will be removed from the existing 'Index Prices' and 'Index Price Details' reports.

A summary of the new Crude Oil reports is as follows:

- Crude Oil Index Prices and Crude Index Price Details will be based on existing 'Index Prices', and 'Index Price Details' reports.
- 'Crude Oil Index Prices', and 'Crude Oil Index Price Details' reports will be listed under 'Market Data' Tab
- Only crude markets will be listed under 'Indexes' filter on Crude Oil reports

Current Index Reports will be revised as follows:

- 'Crude Oil' will be removed as an option in the drop down 'Commodity' filter
- Crude information will be removed from the 'Indexes' and 'Component' filter

The changes to the NGX Index Prices and Index Price Details report are targeted for May 1st, 2015. If you have any questions, concerns or recommendations regarding the upcoming changes to the NGX Index Price and Index Price Details, please email ops@ngx.com or contact 403-974-4357.
