

Force Majeure Update at Enbridge Westcoast Energy Inc. ("Spectra Hunt") - December 22-31st Gas Days

December 21, 2018

For Gas Days December 22nd - December 31st ICE NGX will continue the force majeure to reflect 16% reduction of supply and delivery obligations. Existing positions will be reduced to reflect this, resulting in NGX clients needing to make or take delivery of 84% of existing volumes for each of those days. This is subject to change based on changes in operating conditions, which are evaluated daily, by the pipeline operator, Enbridge Westcoast Energy Inc.

Trading for Gas Days December 22nd - December 31st for Spectra-Hunt are open during normal business hours. Please see the ICE NGX Holiday notices.

Christmas 2018 Holiday

New Year's Day 2019 Holiday

Any transactions done during this window will be scheduled for 100% of volume, and regular delivery obligations under the ICE NGX CPA will apply.

ICE NGX's force majeure declaration will continue to reflect the 16% reduction of supply and delivery obligations and duration as declared by the pipeline operator, Enbridge Westcoast Energy Inc.. This is subject to change based on changes in operating conditions, which are evaluated daily, by the pipeline operator, Enbridge Westcoast Energy Inc...

When running the Nomination Report on ICE NGX Reports, select 'Include Force Majeure Adjustments' on the right-hand side of the filter to see the percentage applied to existing delivery positions entered into prior to October 10th.

ICE NGX staff will be communicating with traders, credit or other appropriate contacts in your organization with further information, and updated notifications will also be available on ICE NGX's website at www.ngx.com. Please contact your ICE NGX Marketing Representative or ICE NGX's Operations staff at 403-974-4357 with any questions.